

CONSERVATION BIOLOGY
PROJECT PRESENTATION SCHEDULE 2009
15-MINUTE PRESENTATIONS*

Person	Topic
Friday, Nov 20
1. Sean Coyne	Population Viability Analysis: Wood Thrush
2. Elizabeth McCarthy	Management of Pennsylvania Game Lands
3. Mark Sarcone	Conservation Development in Union County
Monday, Nov 23
4. Hilary Lohmann	History of Environmental Degradation in the Susquehanna River Watershed
5. Liana Horner	Environmental Impacts of the Sunbury Fabridam and Flood Wall
6. Whitney Brown	Cost-Benefit Analysis of the Sunbury Fabridam
Monday, Nov 30
7. Kelly Boyle	Population Viability Analysis and Management Recommendations: Delmarva Fox Squirrel
8. Jeffrey Greco	Investigation of the Maintenance of the Bucknell Golf Course and Its Environmental Effects on the Surrounding Area
9. Amy Mantush	Effects of Habitat Management on Birds in Central Pennsylvania: Bucknell Golf Course
Wednesday, Dec 2
10. Andrew Longenecker	Impacts of Hemlock Woolly Adelgids on Tall Timbers' Hemlocks
11. Courtney Warren	Nutrient Inputs and Water-Quality Impacts on Seneca Lake
12. Chris Damiano	The Development of the Marcellus Shale in Northeastern Pennsylvania
Friday, Dec 4
13. Meghan Hoopes	Impacts of Non-Native Ornamental Plants on Bucknell's Campus & Ecology
14. Daniel Wang	Impacts of the Invasive Norway Maple: Removal from Bucknell's Campus
15. Caitlin Kairys	Organic vs. Non-Till Agriculture: The Union County Experiences
Monday, Dec 7
16. Allison Gittings	Impacts of the Buffalo Creek Watershed (and other watersheds like it) on the Chesapeake Bay Watershed

* Written Term Paper is Due on Monday, Dec 7, 2009.