

2nd Student Athlete Conference:
Athletes and the Human Body
Monday, February 25, 2008
Forum Room, Langone Center, Bucknell University
7:00pm
Presentation and Discussion

This is the second Student Athlete Conference sponsored by Rivka Ulmer (Jewish Studies). Student Athletes will address multiple ways of thinking about the relationship of athletes to their bodies, sports and the practice of religion, as well as the contribution of minorities, such as Jews, to sports. The purpose of the conference is to teach the next generation of student athletes about the challenges and gratifications of sports on campus. Open and free to the public

(The 1st Student Athlete Conference in 2006 discussed Diversity Issues and Academic Challenges and presented the topic of “Jews and Sports”)

Presenters: Ryan Ahern, Steve Collage, Greg Conti, Josh DeStefano, Chad Glasser, Joe Greene, Andy Guadagno, Shawn Hirsch, Brian Manning, Kevin Mullen, Cameron O’Reilly, Steve Rivera, Pete Salvatore, Nadinka Sheriff, Ryan Slater, Greg Sutton, Austin Turban, Rivka Ulmer, Mat Wilson, Terrance Wilson

Contact: Prof. Rivka Ulmer (Jewish Studies), Dept. of Religion, Tel. 577-1688