

4th Student Athlete Conference

Shaping the Body, the Advantages of Being a Student Athlete, Religion and Sports.

Monday, October 5th, 2009

Forum Room, Langone Center, Bucknell University

7:00pm

Presentation and Discussion

This is the fourth Student Athlete Conference sponsored by Rivka Ulmer (Jewish Studies). Student Athletes will address multiple ways of thinking about the relationship of athletes to their bodies, sports and the practice of religion, as well as the contribution of Jews to sports. The purpose of the conference is to teach the next generation of student athletes about the challenges and gratifications of sports on campus. Open and free to the public.
