

MacArthur Chair in Jewish Studies
Fall 2005 Lecture Series:
Judaism and Its Cultural Implications

Tuesday, August 30th, 2005

Professor Iris Bruce, McMaster University, Canada

Will present a lecture:

"Bambi, King of the Forest:
Cultural Zionism in Franz Kafka's and Felix Salten's Animal Worlds"

7:00 pm Gallery Theater, Langone Center, Bucknell University

The lecture is free and open to the public.

Walt Disney's animated movie Bambi is based upon a book written by Felix Salten (1869-1945). Franz Kafka (1883-1924) is the author of numerous works, such as The Trial and Investigations of a Dog. Both authors were also involved in Zionist theory and culture. Professor Bruce is an expert in Franz Kafka and in Zionist theory as well as in German-Jewish and Israeli literature. Contact: Rivka Ulmer, 7-1688